Dear Supporter,

Losing a loved one, a parent, brother or sister, grandparent or friend, may be the most devastating and disrupting experience of a child's life. For over thirteen years the Children's Bereavement Center (CBC) has provided free peer support groups to thousands of individuals, helping children, teens, young adults and caregivers to find the camaraderie, comfort and information needed to rebuild their lives after loss. The CBC is now expanding with two new sites in North Miami-Dade and Broward counties, to better serve the South Florida community.

Rockin' will be held on Saturday, March 31, 2011 at Ransom Everglades Middle School (2045 South Bayshore Drive, Coconut Grove). This casual and fun evening includes a delicious dinner by Chef David Schwadron, live music, and exciting live and silent auctions. This year CBC will be honoring Maria Alonso and Alex Montague, our past Chairperson and Board Member, for their commitment and dedication to the CBC.

Please consider a sponsorship/donation to CBC's "Rockin' on the Green." The CBC is South Florida's only nonprofit Center dedicated to helping grieving children and families. CBC Sponsors will be acknowledged at our event, marketing materials, and Touchstones, the CBC's newsletter.

Your generous support is vital to continue to enable children and parents to attend the free peer support groups at the CBC.

Please become a sponsor and join the celebration on March 31st, along with over 400 guests, on behalf of The Children's Bereavement Center. You can help us turn lives around after loss and provide comfort and caring when our children need it most.

Thanking you in advance,

Mindy Cassel, Ph.D.
